Wrangel Will Fight to End

Is In Retreat Before Soviet Offensive.

SEBASTOPOL, Nov. 3.—Four Soviet armies with squadrons of cavalry are pushing southward from Melitopol railway to Alexandrovsk some fifty miles north of the Crimea Peninsula in an attempt to cut off the forces of General Wrangel, the anti-Bolshevik commander, who is in retreat before the Soviet offensive. Some of Wrangel's troops are being removed by transport on the Sea of Azov, from Laurida province into the Crimea. General Wrangel admits the loss of Perekop at the entrance to the narrow neck of land giving access to the main Crimean Peninsula, but declares he will fight to the end.

gins in New Mexico and Tennessee were reported.

(Daily News Despatch)

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—With but a few final or official returns to be received, decisive pluralities and leads indicated the certainty of the following votes in the Electoral College for the respective candidates:

Glasgow Votes "Wet"

GLASGOW, Nov. 3.—Official results in Glasgow of the liquor option toll today shows a comparative victory for the wets. Four wards voted dry, nine for limited licenses and twenty-four for no change, which means that ninety-four licenses will be cancelled throughout the city out of a total of sixteen hundred. Aberdeen voted wet, two to one.

Harding's Attitude

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Senator Harding accepted his victory without exaltation stating that "he was more given to prayers to God to make me capable of playing my part." To Vice-President-elect, Governor Coolidge, Harding said "we've got a real job and we will tackle it to-gether."

Murders All Around

ORLANDO, Fla., Nov. 3.—Five negroes were burned to death and another hung to a tree as result of a light which started at the polls at Ocoee, near here, last night after election officials had refused to permit Mose Norman, a negro, to vote on the ground that he had failed to pay his poll tax. Two white men were shot and killed and several others including a former police chief were wounded in the fight which preceded the wholesale lynching. The negroes burned met death in houses in which they had congregated and which were fired. The sixth negro killed was taken from a jail early to-day by the mob.

RESULT OF ELECTION MAY CLOSE U.S. OPEN MARKET TO CANADIAN WHEAT

OTTAWA, Nov. 3.—Republican victories are, it is thought here, likely to have an important bearing on trade in wheat, wheat products and potatoes between Canada and the United States. Under the provisions of the Underwood (Democratic) tariff of 1913 to the United States has aroused wide Wheat, Wheat Flour, Semolina, and opposition among the farming communities of American west. U.S.A. Govt. Will Be Against Beer & Wine Amendments

COLUMBUS, Ohio, Nov. 3.—Wayne B. Wheeler, Superintendent and General Counsel of Anti-Saloon League of America, to-night issued a statement in which he asserted that reports on Congressional elections from forty States show that a substantial majority of both House and Senate are against all beer and wine amend- ments.

England Interested In Harding's Cabinet

LONDON, 3.—The Daily News in an editorial expresses opinion that the composition of President Harding's cabinet will be more important for Englishmen than Harding's election. The appointment of Herbert Hoover and Elihu Root whose names are mentioned, says the paper, would be viewed here with unqualified satisfaction.

Found Dead In Hotel

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Leeds Vaughn Waters, believed by the police to have been a member of a titled English family, was found dead to-day with his head cut and bruised in a room in the Plymouth Hotel. The police are searching for a rough looking young man who accompanied Waters to the hotel and registered under the name of James Dunne, Milwaukee.

Oklahoma City, Nov. 3.—A woman representative in Congress from Oklahoma became a reality to-night when belated returns gave victory to Alice M. Robertson, Republican, over W. H. Havings, Democrat, incumbent in the second district.

Miners' Executive Take Action Opposed To The Result of Ballot

LONDON, Nov. 3.—The executive officers of the Miners' Federation have decided to declare the coal strike ended and advise the men to resume work. This action was resolved upon at a conference of the executive to-day although the ballot of miners showed a majority of more than eight thousand against accepting the government's settlement proposals.

Champ Clarke Slides Out of Public Life

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 3.—Champ Clarke, of Bowling Green, Mo., veteran and former speaker of the House of Representatives, to which he has been elected more times than the average voter can remember, to-night surrendered his post of honor to T. W. Huckabee, of Warrenton, Mo., the young Republican candidate in the Ninth Missouri District.

NO MAN CAN AFFORD

to look poorly dressed for nothing succeeds like success. The appearance of success, instills confidence, and that's what's needed in this age of commercialism. It doesn't cost much to be well-groomed — to have well-fitted and neat, tasty and appropriate garments which are made for you and bear individuality. No man can feel well-dressed if his clothes do not fit well, hang well, and give him confidence that he looks right. We are prepared to make you well-dressed at the minimum of cost. BAROMETER BREVITIES

Comparatively few people can read a barometer correctly.

Perhaps it has rained after the glass has gone up, or played other queer tricks, and they have concluded that the instrument is out of order.

If the mercury is high during wet weather, and keeps there, fine weather may be expected very soon. But if the rise has been sudden the fine spell will not last. Only a steady rising glass predicts a long fine spell.

In winter a sharp rise in the mercury foretells frost. North and easterly winds are also indicated by a high level of the glass.

When the mercury falls in wet weather the outlook is poor. More rain is sure to follow. In very hot weather a sudden fall denotes a gale or thunderstorm. In frosty weather it gives warning of a thaw.

A sudden fall at any time foretells wind, or wind with much rain; and if the wind is already in the west a violent storm is very probable.

Mr. Black picked up his baby boy and exclaimed with fatherly pride:—"There, now, isn't he just the picture of his father?"

Mr. Brown thought a minute, and replied:—

"Yes, you're right, but you don't want to let that worry you so long as he's healthy."

LABOR LEADER IS COMING TO AMERICA

Remarkable Career of Rt. Hon. Arthur Henderson.

Right Honorable Arthur Henderson, who is coming to America to get in closer touch with the labor party movement on this side, is numbered among the foremost leaders of the British Labor Party. His career has been a remarkable one. Beginning work in a butcher's shop at the age of twelve years, he afterwards became an iron-moulder, at which trade he worked steadily until his election to Parliament in 1903. During the past decade the one-time butcher's boy has served successively as Privy Counsellor, President of the Board of Education, Paymaster-General, and during the period of the war, as one of the five "War Lords," on whose decisions and conduct the fate of the British Empire depended. The dominant trait in Mr. Henderson's character perhaps is his good nature, but he is not averse to a fight when a fight appears necessary, especially when it is against odds.

Career of President- Elect Harding

1865—Born at Corsica, Ohio.
1881—Graduated from Iberia College.
1884—Bought Marion Weekly Star.
1891—Married to Miss Florence King,
Marion, Ohio.
1899—Elected State Senator.
1901—Re-elected State Senator.
1903—Elected Lieutenant Governor.
1910—Defeated for Governor of Ohio.
1912—Nominated Taft for President.
1914—Elected United States Senator.
1916—Temporary chairman, Republican national convention.
1920—Nominated by the Republican party for the Presidency of the United States.

Warren G. Harding has always been a resident of Ohio, which State he has represented as United States Senator since 1914. In private business life he is publisher of the Marion, Ohio, Star.

He was born on a farm, near the village of Blooming Grove, Morrow County, Ohio, November 2, 1865, the eldest of eight children. His father George T. Harding, was a country doctor whose forbears came from Scotland. Before going to Ohio, the Hardings were residents of Pennsylvania, where some of them were massacred by Indians. Others fought in the revolutionary war. The mother of Warren, Mrs. Phoebe Dickenson, was descended from an old-time Holland
Dutch family, the Van Kirsks.

In his youth Warren Harding lived the life of a farmer boy attending the village school until fourteen years of age, when he entered Ohio Central College of Iberia, from which he was graduated. As editor of the college paper he first displayed a talent for journalism. He was obliged to stop school now and then and earn the money with which to pursue his college course. At one time he cut corn, at another painted barns and at still another drove a team and helped to grade the roadbed of a new railway.
At seventeen he taught a district school and played a horn in the village brass band.

At odd times he worked in the village printing office, in time becoming an expert typesetter and later a linotype operator. He is a practical press man and a job printer, and as a "make up man" is said to have few equals
The luck piece he has carried as a Senator is the old printer's rule he used when he was sticking type.

In 1884 Dr. Harding moved his family to Marion. A short time afterward the father purchased for Warren Harding, The Star, then a small paper.

On the paper Warren Harding performed every function from devil to managing editor. In all the years the Senator has owned it there has never been a strike or a threatened one.

Senator Harding is closely identified with many other large business enterprises in Marion and other parts of the State of Ohio. He is a director of a bank and several manufacturing plants and is a trustee of the Trinity Baptist Church.

Mr. Harding has twice represented the thirteenth senatorial district of Ohio in the State of Legislature and served one term as Lieutenant-Governor. At the 1914 election Harding was elected United States Senator by a majority of more than 10,000 running 73,000 ahead of the next highest on the ticket. In the Senate he is a member of the Committee on Foreign Relations. Senator Harding married Miss Florence King in 1891.
Harding is tall, handsome, impressive in appearance and a figure sure of attracting attention in or out of a distinguished gathering. He is clean shaven, his face is clear cut, topped off by a high, broad forehead. His hair is grey and closely cropped.—

ST. JOHN'S, NEWFOUNDLAND, THURSDAY, NOV. 4th, 1920.

THE ITALIAN SITUATION

The "Herald" printed yesterday a statement from a Fish Exporter which completely refutes the charges which have been made in all the Opposition papers that the difficulty in Italy is the fact that the Government forced Mr. Hawes upon the exporters of fish to deal with the Consorzio, and further that this was done in order that certain firms might get a "rake off" from Hawes' commissions. This is absolutely false, and the leading fish exporter in his statement to the Herald makes it very plain that it is false. This exporter also points out a fact that was unfairly suppressed by the "News" in its report of Mr. W. A. Munn's speech at the Convention—the fact that it was decided to permit anyone to sell direct to the Consorzio, and that as a matter of fact, nearly every shipper in the trade, including Mr. Munn, did attempt to do so but failed to make the least bit of headway with the Consorzio or even to elicit information as to the position in Italy.

This exporter then went on to say that the exporters saw it was absolutely necessary to send someone to Italy, and all the regular members of the Fish Exporters' Association, numbering about 15 to 20, decided to send Mr. Hawes there, and to place their fish in his hands for sale. Mr. Hawes went to Italy, and what did he find? HE FOUND THAT HIS EFFORTS TO CONCLUDE A LARGE CONTRACT WERE BEING FRUSTRATED BY WIRES AND INFORMATION SENT FROM HERE TO THE CONSORZIO'S CHAIRMAN. THE CONTENTS OF WHICH, THERE IS ONLY TOO GOOD REASON TO BELIEVE, INTIMATED THAT THE REGULATIONS WOULD SHORTLY COLLAPSE, AND GENERALLY ENCOURAGED HIM NOT TO PURCHASE.

Here we have another direct proof that our interests in the foreign markets are being prejudiced by the irresponsible and unfair political propaganda set on foot here by the Opposition press and their political friends, in which every obstacle conceivable is being put in the way of the realization of a fair price for our fish.

-- This underhand work immediately caused the Exporters here to request that Mr. Hawes be appointed sole agent for Italy, and all agreed to this except Mr. W. A. Munn. The Consorzio have said that they have no objection to dealing with Mr. Hawes, and it is only a matter of time when a sale will be arranged, which will be in the best interests of the whole Dominion.

The concluding portion of this leading Exporter's opinion is worth reprinting in full. It is a stinging rebuke to the Opposition Press and should have a salutary effect:

"What we object to is that people here in the country are giving aid and encouragement to Ragnoli by supplying him with information which confirms him in the belief that we will have to back down and that he has only to postpone for another while any dealings with us and we will have to give way. I believe that it is this information and this alone which is preventing Mr. Hawes from concluding business with Mr. Ragnoli long ago.

"I think it is a pity that the Opposition newspapers are taking the tone they are doing, because they are causing damage to our interests abroad. I know the Government newspapers are giving a good deal of cause for retaliation, but the difference is that their articles, with some insignificant exceptions, perhaps, are not having a harmful effect abroad. The newspapers and the public do not seem to realize that the present method of control, whatever it may have been at first, is now nothing else but a control by a large majority of the exporters and that they are influenced solely by the desire to make the best trade they can abroad, the benefits of which must flow out to the fishermen as well as be enjoyed by themselves, and the terms asked are not unfair to the consumer. I consider some joint action essential under present unfortunate circumstances. I believe the greater part of the exporters are united at the present time in a way that was never possible before, but I consider that the activities and unfair propaganda of those outside the Exporters' Association have succeeded in preventing the proper measure of success being attained which this unity should have insured."

F.P.U. CONVENTION AT PORT UNION

The Annual Convention of the Fishermen's Protective Union is to be held about the end of this month at Port Union. The usual special fares have been arranged with the Reid Nf. Co. as the notice given below states, and the Convention will probably be largely attended by the fishermen delegates, who will eagerly show their loyalty to President Coaker and their confidence in him during the trying times of the present. When he addresses them, and tells of the year's work, they will realize that the country has been saved from disaster during the past year, and they will get a full insight into the nefarious work of their political opponents who seek by every subterfuge imaginable to poison their minds against Coaker.

Delegates who will attend the Convention are requested to pay particular attention to the following:

Government Railway Commission,
Office of the General Passenger Agent,

St. John's, Newfoundland.
November 12, 1920.

Special Fare Notice No. 190,
To Agents, Pursuers and Conductors:—
Fishermen's Protective Union Convention, at Port Union, (Latter Part November Or Early December)

For the above Convention, you may issue to delegates presenting their F. P. U. Cards, first class tickets to Port Union at ONE HALF THE REGULAR FIRST CLASS FARE, and advise them they will be given return ticket to their homes, upon presentation of their F. P. U. Cards to the Ticket Agent, at Port Union, at ONE HALF THE REGULAR FIRST CLASS FARE.

Give this matter as much publicity as possible. Convention dates will be advised later.

"That Scribe" Calls Again

Chapeau bas to the Telegram. I call again, dear sir, to express my thanks and compliments for the honorary title accorded me in your issue of Saturday. So you think I am a scribe, Telegram, well that's very nice of you to think of me at all. Allow me to say that it is good to be "something." In view of the monopoly of Pharisees held by the Telegram, it would hardly be granting that paper a square deal to expect to find anything but demagogues and scribes outside of its domain. When one considers the hypocritical statements and attitudes of the Telegram, and its utter callousness to natural reasoning and logical conclusions, one is not surprised to being called a scribe. In fact, considering the degraded and undignified position of that paper at present, it looks like a marked distinction. It certainly shows the narrowness and bad journalism of a paper to assert that all who disagree with its views are scribes. Surely commonsense and reason must have impressed the Telegram long since that there being two sides to every question there must necessarily be two views. Any country—worthy to be called such, must contain two or more parties, always a government and an opposition. But according to the Telegram, here in Newfoundland we should have only one body politic, with one dictator—"The Telegram." One would almost imagine that the Telegram has been handed down from the ancient period, through the medieval on to the modern periods, and is the only present day relic of the law of the Medes and Persians.

But fortunately for the populace that imagination cannot be made realistic because of the obvious absurdity and utter lack of commonsense, in the editorial arguments and views of that paper.

The Telegram funnily enough does not deny in any way the arguments and views of the Advocate contributors. Undoubtedly it would like to do so, but its reason is obvious. It cannot, you may dispute facts, but they cannot be changed. Even the Telegram with all its tactful diplomacy, its powers (?) of arguing, its attempts to convince with big words, cannot rebut the truth. In spite of the Telegram's bold attempts to deny, its statements cannot be called denials. Even though we may dispense the truth with penurious frugality it shows that we do give the truth, not occasionally but commonly. It is far better to give the truth, though penurious, then to follow the Telegram's example and fill our columns with falsehoods, and then add insult to injury, by trying to camouflage them so as they may look like the truth. For Mr. James' benefit I repeat the old sage—"A lie that looks like the truth is the worse kind of lie."

Evidently the Telegram is seeing some enlightenment as regards the price being paid for fish at Port Union. I may say that more cash was paid there by the Union Trading Company than the Water Street opposers of the Fish Regulations are paying their traders of twenty years standing. Also, in spite of the wit displayed by the Telegram in a futile attempt to make a joke of "white nape," that quality is fetching the highest current price. The Telegram seeks to obliterate the truth of affairs at Port Union in the matter of selling fish—by labouring under an idea that CASH is not being paid, thereby insinuating that a truck system is in vogue. Now apparently the difference between contributions of Advocate writers and those of the Telegram is this—the Advocate writers dispense the truth with penurious frugality, whereas the writers of the Telegram and especially the editor dispense with the truth profusely. As the Telegram has given us credit for some truth, and has put forward no truthful pleas or arguments of its own, the natural and obvious conclusion is that it dispenses with the truth rather than dispensing the truth with penurious frugality.

The Telegram having laboured assiduously in despising and criticising the Fish Regulations, found that its efforts were futile and unsuccessful, we now find it waxing very loquacious in trying to convince some of its cynically sinister followers that cash is not being paid for fish sold at Port Union. The Telegram says they who "shipped off" there know. Yes, true, oh James! they know, and you ought to know, but knowing, you are far too stiffnecked and unscrupulous to admit the truth. For the benefit of the Telegram and its readers, I assert truthfully and without partiality that shippers at Port Union are paid as much cash for their fish as they want or desire.

The Telegram obviously takes objection to the fact that people are buying supplies at Port Union as well as shipping fish. The Telegram is too cynical and callous to see or admit that one is synonymous with the other in so far as Newfoundland trade is concerned. Practically all the fish exporters in this country carry and supply large stocks of merchandise. They buy in the products of the sea and sell out provisions and other necessities of living. The amount of cash generally handed out is that which is not required to provide for the ensuing months of winter and spring. This is the general system prevailing in Newfoundland. Now if, as the Telegram insinuates, a truck system is in vogue at Port Union, it therefore follows that we have never had any system other than a truck system in Newfoundland. The Union Trading and Export Companies are in as good a position to buy and sell as any company or firm along Water Street. The price paid for fish at Port Union is about the highest obtainable anywhere around the Island, provisions and other articles of merchandise are slightly cheaper than in St. John's. Why, then, should the people sell their fish at Port Union, take their cash and come about 100 miles to St. John's to buy in supplies? Probably that all-inspiring paper, the Telegram, will supply the answer. But remember, Telegram, there

There is No Fish Available to Send to Brazil News Falsehood Exposed

The News this morning again publishes an editorial article, brazenly false and impudently unpatriotic, asserting Brazil did not buy last year because of regulations, and then proceeds to show that the exports to Brazil last year were below the exports of the year before. The News is well aware of the fact that every available fish suitable for Brazil was sold to Brazil during the year ending June 30th last. No more fish could be shipped because there was none available. So far as October shipments are concerned, one firm wanted three cargoes of new fish in October and secured but one, which is just ready to sail. Several cargoes have been sold for November, sailing from St. John's, but not one cargo is available. One local buyer has a contract to ship a cargo November 4th but requires 2,000 more drums to complete that cargo. Shipments in October were short not because there was a decreased demand, but because no exporter could secure the fish to complete a cargo. The only cargo of new fish cleared this year was the cargo cleared from Port Union—Barbarr Barr. The cargo per "Innovation" was partly old and partly new. Newfoundland will not have sufficient fish by 100,000 qtls. to meet the requirements of Brazil this season. The shore fish supply is fully 500,000 qtls. less than last year. The price of Brazil fish has been advanced 2/6 because of the great shortage of suitable Brazilian fish.

Probably the well informed editor of the News secured his information from Mr. Duder, the agent of a big Brazilian purchaser, whose duty it is to scare all and sundry here in order to purchase if possible cheap fish for his employer, who it is said is paying him $8,000.00 per year.

Well for Newfoundland there is a Coaker policy to-day or Mr. Duder would be buying fish for his employer at a price that would enable the local merchant to pay only $5.00 for Brazilian fish.

The people of this country are kindly disposed to most men, but we venture to say that very few countries would tolerate the action and conduct of men in their midst whose only aim and object is to influence all and sundry to pay as low a price as possible to our country's producers in order to permit foreign firms to get our products at their own figures.

If the News and J. C. Currie, the Telegram and Charlie James, and the Herald and Sir P. T. McGrath can find consolation and justification in their contemptible conduct we venture to state that the large, very large majority of the electors of this country, do not; and the fishermen to-day have more contempt for those political parasites than than had last November.

is to be no hedging!

Before closing, I would ask the Telegram, why is it that no report is given or mention made, in its columns, of the number of our fish carriers clearing for markets? Let us have the privilege of hearing the truth for once from your columns.

From reports given during the week in the local press I find that twenty or more of our foreign going vessels loaded with fish, carrying in the vicinity of 40 to 50 thousand quintals, cleared for market, yes, and all under the Regulations. Telegram, read, mark, learn and inwardly digest.

FAUSTUS.

NO 231

The Telegram editor has once more made himself the laughing stock of the country. A few days ago he was foolish enough to suggest that His Excellency the Governor take steps to remove the present Government and yesterday this modern peer calls upon the people themselves to declare a new independence and, we presume, make Charlie James first President of the Newfoundland Republic.

To bolster up this hairbrained idea, the Telegram aspirant concedes that all governments derive their powers from the consent of the governed. Therefore he argues the people have the right to have whatever kind of administration they choose.

The No. 231 then very conveniently forget that there just one year ago Newfoundland had a general election. During that campaign, as in the campaign of 1913, Charlie James advocated that peculiar brand of 'independence' about which he howls to-day. He forgets Morine, Stone, Currie, Oake, McKay, Kean and others of the Cashinites preached his same gospel and got literally 'horsewhipped' at the hands of those who composed the present Government.

During the latter part of his diatribe of yesterday, James says 'The people voted the Liberal Reform Party into power last fall' but they did not give their consent to the autocratic and extremist measures which the Government passed and are enforcing.

If No. 231 will look through the legislative records of last session, he will find that it was not only the Government members and the exporters who supported the Fishery Regulations. Sir M. P. Cashin voted for them. Messrs. Higgins, Bennett, Fox, Vinnicombe, Sullivan, Walsh and the few others supported them and, in doing so, showered bouquets of the rosiest exuberance at Mr. Coaker who introduced the regulations.

The election returns in Burgeo District of 1913 and 1919, do not speak well of James' persuasive powers; nor does his reported and unfulfilled boast that he could solve the Irish problem at the head of one thousand men from Burgeo justify the belief that this individual ever means what he takes into his head to say. And it will require a more fervent display of James' wordiness to convince the public that he is nothing better than a political revenger, ready to sink a once decent newspaper into the slough of disreput, irrespective of injury inflicted on the interests of the country.

The S. S. Susu left Carmanville at 5.10 a.m. to-day on her way to St. John's.

KEEPING THE BALANCE

American farmers raise a protest against the wave of price reductions which, they claim, threatens the ruin of agriculture. In considering prices, it is true the producer as well as the consumer has his rights, and these are not always so much in conflict as they seem.

High prices are unpopular and low prices are popular generally speaking. But food is in a class by itself, because of the close relation of agriculture to the life of the community. Temporary relief comes high, as has been said on sound economic authority, at a cost of permanent hardship. It is in the highest public interest to maintain a just balance on the markets. The consumer needs the producer even more, very often, than the producer needs the consumer.—Montreal Star.

WHALE IS BROUGHT TO PORT

NOTES FROM-GOOSEBERRY COVE.
(To the Editor)

Dear Sir,—Please allow me space in your most esteemed paper for a few remarks from this little place. First I must speak of a quiet but interesting wedding here Sept. 14th, when Mr. Moses Seward and Miss Dinah Eddy were united in the holy bonds of matrimony at Hickmans Hr. by Rev. T. Pitcher. Mrs. Rosie Smith, niece of the groom was brides-maid and Mr. J. Pardy was best-man. The bride was handsomely attired in white silk dress with hat to match and carried bouquet of white carnations. The bridesmaid was attired in blue silk with hat to match. The bride received many useful and costly presents, both from Hickmans Harbor, (the home of the bride) and Gooseberry Cove. The groom's present to the bride was a piece of gold, and to the bridesmaid, a set of pearls. A motor with the happy party left Hickmans Hr. for Gooseberry Cove their future home, where a happy and comfortable home was awaiting there. After leaving the church at Hickmans Hr. they wended their way to the bride's home where a nice supper was waiting for all friends and relatives who wished to attend. A large number was present and an enjoyable time was spent. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Moses Seward many years of happy and wedded life.

Before we close we must speak of a interesting sight which occurred here yesterday when Mr. Robert Seward and Mr. Joseph Seward towed to port a large Whale. It was about 50 feet long and they had to moor it off in the Harbor all night. Many casks of oil are being taken from its fat. All the men from this place are absent at present, some in the Lumber Woods and some on the Labrador. Hoping I not trepassed too much, hoping to see my letter in print and wishing the Advocate, The Editor and The Fishermen's Union every success.

We remain,
TWO WIDOWS.

McIVER'S POTATOE CROP GOOD

(To the Editor)
Dear Sir,—Will you please grant me a space in your valuable paper the Weekly Advocate, to make a few remarks about the wonderful crops of potatoes that were raised here at McIvers. One man had as high as 70 barrels of potatoes, and the rest of the people had from 25 barrels and 30, and 40 and so on. It is the best crop of potatoes that was raised in Bay of Islands this year. Potatoes are selling for $4.00 and $5.00 dollars per barrel. There was a fairly good crop of turnips. Hoping I haven't taken too much space in your esteemed paper. Wishing President Coaker and the Union every success the coming season.

Yours truly,
ROOK WORM.

MARRIED LIFE'S BIG DANGER IN TENTH YEAR

LONDON, Oct. 7.—The old theory that the first year of married life is the most dangerous in so far as divorce is concerned has just been relegated to the discard and statisticians now extend the "dangerous" period to ten whole years—from the tenth to the twentieth year of married life.
"We find that the biggest total of divorces occurs between the tenth and twentieth year of marriage," an official of the Divorce Law Reform Union said yesterday. "The next highest is between the fifth and tenth year, and so on down the scale. There is a big drop after the twentieth year, not many couples seeking divorce after that time."

Mme. Albanesi, the novelist, placed the danger period between the seventh and tenth year of married life. She declared that children were necessary to the happiness of the home, keeping parents together.

Trouble In Alabama

MONTGOMERY Ala., Nov. 1.—Eleven negroes were in jail here today in connection with the burning of cotton gins, dwelling house and churches by unidentified persons, supposedly night riders. Officials however expressed the belief that the destruction had been direct by white man. Operations were started in this country by supposed night riders Saturday night, and up to noon today had resulted in the death of two negroes and the burning of two negro churches, two gin houses, one store, eight dwelling houses and several tons of cotton seed and ten bales of cotton.

A Farewell!

Harbor Grace,
Oct. 27, 1920.

Several times you acted kindly
My words of poetry to print down,
In the columns of your paper,
That is widely read 'round.

Would you please tell of this action
In your paper once again
Before I leave this cold, cold climate
On a voyage 'cross the main.

If you would like to know our vessel
Her name is the "James O'Neil,"
And she does race all o'er the ocean,
Like a horse does race the field.

From this harbor we are taking,
A load of fish for Italy,
Which is quite a longish journey,
All across the deep blue sea.

Friends to us "Fair winds" are wishing,
And what can they wish us more
For it is the chief thing needed
Going to that foreign shore.

For their good wishes I must thank them,
I will think of them while gone,
May God's blessing rest upon them,
And the place where they belong.

This is not where I belong to,
That is a place called Burgoyne's Cove

And the friends of whom I've spoken
Lie there too, and those I love.
Those I love, I mean my parents,
Who brought me up with tender care,
And I, if following their example,
In a foreign country.

Should have nothing, else to fear.
May God bless them and protect them
While I am across the sea,
And you bet I won't forget them,

WHAT'S WRONG?

The artist has purposely made several things wrong in the picture. So how many things you can find which are incorrect.

Have You Forgotten Gentlemen

Baltimore Sun: Whether or not it be a fortunate provision of nature, the human mind quickly forgets. But a short two years ago we were in the midst of a world war. Nearly every family in this country was harrowed with the thought that some one dear to them was in imminent danger. There was the possibility, not alone of loss of life, but of seeing that dear one come home crippled or blind. And their fears were well justified. Never has war taken such a toll. Ten million dead and more than twice as many wounded. The young manhood of the world, the hope of future generations, had gone down in the struggle. Men silently swore to themselves that there should be no more wars. They held to the hope and belief that we were fighting the last great war; that out of the chaos and horrors would come some plan which would make war unlikely, if not impossible.

BRITISH IMMIGRATION TO SOUTH AMERICA

Discouraged by Authorities.

LONDON, Oct. 23—Recent offers of transportation by the Peruvian Government for British emigrants are resulting in official consideration by the foreign office of the general question of emigration to South America. The officials admit frankly that they look with disfavor upon British emigration to South and Central America.

The overseas office is advising intending emigrants that under no circumstances should Britishers emigrate to South America, where the language, laws and standards of living, wages, working conditions are entirely different from those in the United Kingdom.

The official view is that emigration should be toward the dominions, there being plenty of room for opportunity, where life is similar to that in Great Britain, and where there is the possibility of emigrants retaining their citizenship.

COMEDIANS OF THE BURIAL PLACES

Epitaphs Which Make Those Who Read Them Smile.

Collectors of tombstone literature with a penchant for comic epitaphs have plenty to choose from, says Tit-Bits, London.

So prevalent has become the custom of inscribing facetious doggerel on tombstones that authorities are trying to stop the practice by insisting that epitaphs shall in future be chosen from the Bible or standard Christian authors.

A typical example of the work of the churchyard comedians is to be seen in Oxford, where a tombstone bears this inscription:

Here lyeth John Crocker, a maker of bellows;
He's crafts-master and king of good fellows.
Yet when he came to the hour of his death
He that made bellows could not make breath.

THE ELECTION ISSUE

(Washington Times)
The President knows, and his letter to the public on the War League shows he knows, that this coming election is to be a referendum leaving to the people to decide about the War League. The number of votes for Cox will tell how many think it a good thing to put this country under control of a Foreign Council. The votes for Harding will tell how many "ignorant and impudent" Americans believe they are as well able to manage their own affairs, as any particular individual whom they happened to hire for eight years to supervise their management constitutionally.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency SIR CHARLES ALEXANDER HARRIS, Knight Commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Commander of the Royal Victorian Order, Governor and Commander in Chief, in and over the Colony of Newfoundland.

WHEREAS under the provisions of the Beaver Act, 1920, the Governor-in-Council may, by Proclamation published in the "Royal Gazette," create and define areas in this Colony in which it shall, or shall not, be lawful to hunt, kill, trap, pursue, or take beavers:

AND WHEREAS it is expedient to define such areas:

I do, therefore, by this my Proclamation, declare that

- (1) the Peninsula of Avalon, East of a line drawn between Come-by-Chance and Bay Bulls Arm;
- (2) the Peninsula of Burin, South of a line drawn between Terrenceville and Swift Current;
- (3) the District of Fogo;
- (4) the District of Bonavista;
- (5) the North Side of the District of Trinity;
- (6) the area bounded as follows, viz.:—By a line commencing at the mouth of Hind's Brook on the East Shore of Grand Lake to run thence along the shore of said Lake, Northerly to the mouth of Coal Brook, thence in a straight line Westerly to a point on the Western Shore of the said Lake two miles South of the Railway Bridge over Junction Brook; thence along the East Shore of Junction Brook and the South Shore of Humber River to a point bearing North 31, 14' West from a point on the Railway near Kitty's Brook Falls; thence in a straight line bearing South 31, 14' East; to the said point on the Railway; thence South 5 1-2 miles; thence in a straight line to the mouth of Hind's Brook aforesaid. Bearings from true Meridian.

shall be areas in which the killing, hunting, trapping, pursuing, or taking of Beavers shall not be lawful; and that all that portion of the Colony not included in the above defined area shall be an area in which the killing, hunting, trapping, pursuing, or taking of Beavers shall be lawful under License issued in accordance with the provisions of and under the regulations made under the said Act.

AND WHEREAS under the provisions of the said Beaver Act, 1920, power is conferred on the Governor-in-Council to fix penalties for breaches of the provisions of the said Act;

AND WHEREAS the Governor-in-Council has power to make regulations governing the hunting, killing, trapping, pursuit, and taking of Beavers:

I do, therefore, by this my Proclamation, declare that a penalty of not less than $50.00 and not exceeding $200.00, or in default, of imprisonment for not less than 15 days, and not exceeding one month, may be imposed by any Stipendiary Magistrate, or Justice of the Peace, for a breach of any of the regulations made under the provisions of the said Act, and that any skins taken in contravention of the said regulations made under the said Act shall be confiscated.

Of which all persons concerned are hereby required to take due notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

Given under my Hand and Seal at the Government House, St. John's, this 19th day of October, A.D. 1920.

By His Excellency's command,
FRED M. STIRLING,
For Deputy Colonial Secretary.

N.B.—The public are asked to note that in the Peninsula of Avalon and other areas defined in the first part of the above Proclamation, the hunting, killing, etc., of Beavers is absolutely prohibited; while, in all other portions of the Colony, Beavers may be hunted, killed, etc., but only under License issued under "The Beaver Act, 1920." The Open Season, in which Beavers may be hunted, killed, etc., under License, extends from March 1st to March 15th.

Published by Authority.

His Excellency the Governor-in-Council has been pleased to make and publish the following Regulations under the provisions of "The Beaver Act, 1920."

FRED M. STIRLING,
For Deputy Colonial Secretary.
Dept. of the Colonial Secretary,
October 19th, 1920.

(1) No person shall hunt, kill, trap, pursue, or take Beavers in any area in which hunting, killing, trapping, pursuing, or taking is lawful without first having obtained a License from the Minister of Marine and Fisheries.

(2) Licenses shall be issued only to bona fide trappers who have been residents of the Colony for at least three years before application for a License, and who have trapped in one section of the Colony for the same period.

(3) Every application for a Beaver License shall be in writing, and shall have endorsed, or attached to it, a Certificate from a Stipendiary Magistrate that the applicant is a bona fide trapper. It shall contain a statement that the applicant desires a License to take a certain number of Beavers, (not more than 25), from a section of the Colony described in the application. It shall be accompanied by an Affidavit made before a Stipendiary Magistrate, or Justice of the Peace, setting forth the applicant's place of residence in the Colony for the three years immediately preceding application, and the boundaries of that section of the Colony in which the applicant has operated for trapping purposes.

(4) Every License-Holder shall deliver his License to the nearest Stipendiary Magistrate upon expiration thereof, together with all unused Tags. He shall also deliver up to the said Stipendiary Magistrate the skins of all Beavers killed by him during the term of his license. Every such skin shall have a tag attached thereto, as provided in Section 5 hereof. He shall also make a sworn statement showing the number of Beavers killed or taken by him during the season, that the skins delivered are of Beavers killed under his License, and that he has complied with all the provisions of the Beaver Acts, and the Regulations made thereunder. The Magistrate who receives said License, skins, tags and statement shall immediately forward the same to the Department of Marine and Fisheries.

(5) Each License shall have attached thereto twenty-five Tags numbered consecutively, which Tags shall have printed thereon the number of the License, the name and address of the Licensee, and the section of the country covered by the License. The Licensee shall as soon as possible after any Beaver is killed, attach securely to the skin of such Beaver one of the Tags furnished with his License, and shall keep the Tag so secured until the skin is delivered in accordance with the provisions of Regulation 4 hereof.

(6) Not more than 25 Beavers shall be killed or taken by any License Holder.

(7) No Licensee shall destroy or damage any Beaver House or Dams.

On the recommendation of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, and under the provisions of "The Beaver Act, 1920," His Excellency the Governor in Council has been pleased to approve the following amendment to the Rules and Regulations respecting the killing of Beavers, of date October 19th instant, namely:

Section 8 (Close Season) to be cancelled and the following substituted therefor:

Close Season

(8) No person shall hunt, kill, trap, pursue, or take Beavers in any area in which killing, trapping, hunting, pursuing, or taking is lawful at any time between the 16th day of March in any year and the last day of February in the succeeding year, both days inclusive.

FRED M. STIRLING,

Ships That Have Passed

By Henry Dumont
In olden days the ocean ways
Bore many a wooden keel;
Sloops, barks, and brigs, and schooner rigs,
With strong men at the wheel;
Our flag of stars and stripes they flew,
With white sails set against the blue.
Our clipper ships made many trips
From Boston to Bombay,
Sunk low with rice and tea and opium,
And swept with ocean spray.
The boatswain's pipe, the gun's "avast"
Were heard about the mizzenmast.

Our barks were sent to the Orient
And up the Amazon;
Their holds were full of flax and wool,
Of jade and cinnamon;
And many a frigate schooner sank,
And many a captive walked the plank.

Intrepid brings brought dates and figs
From Smyrna and Shaban,
Rare jewels, rugs, and agate jugs
From Trebizond and Van;
Their crews had loves in every port,
Of every color, shape, and sort.

Ships sailed away to Frisco Bay
And back to Panama;
And every hold was full of gold
From California;
They sailed beneath the Southern Cross,
Companions of the albatross.

From Baltimore to Singapore,
From Portland to the Horn—
No trip too long, no sea too strong
For men to sailing forth,
When Neptune lashed his foaming steeds

And mermaids fled among the weeds
Ah, those were days when the ocean ways,
Bore many a wooden keel;
And many a sail, ripped by the gale,
Tore past the straining wheel.

Their timbered hulks, now 'neath the waves,
Lie rotting in their ocean graves.
To-day we launch steel vessels stanch
In every bite and bay;
Around the world our flag's unfurled,
On every sea to stay—
An outcome of the world's great rage,
Of conflict 'tis our heritage.

36,622,190
Methodists in World

ACCORDING TO U. S. CENSUS OFFICIAL.

CHICAGO, Oct. 27.—A census of Methodists, compiled by Dr. H. H. Carroll, formerly of the census bureau for the centenary celebration committee of the Methodist Episcopal Church, shows 36,622,190 Methodists in the world, according to figures made public to-day.

There are 9,932,107 members of the church, the remainder being adherents and probationers who are members of Methodist families.
Canada reports 387,421 members; Great Britain 1,269,482; Australia, 204,895.
The increase in the total of Methodists during the last nine years is given as 3,935,341.

WELL DRESSED SCAMP

Shortly before 10 o'clock last night as two young girls were proceeding to their homes up Pleasant St. they were persecuted by the attentions of a respectably dressed scamp who followed close after them, repeatedly accosted and grossly insulted them. Threatening to go back and tell a policeman he went up the street, but hid around the corner of a house on Atlantic Avenue and again as they passed there renewed his outrageous conduct. On seeing two men approach he vanished. They do not know him but would be glad to describe him to the police. Such persecution on the part of prowlers is becoming all too common in St. John's and an example should be made of such offenders.

Inter-Collegiate Football St. Bon's Champions

Yesterday evening the Fieldians and St. Bon's football teams met on St. George's Field in the inter-collegiate series. The ground was not in good condition being very greasy, which made it difficult to handle the ball. The game was, however, up to expectations, and a good exhibition was given. In the first half no scoring was done although both teams missed several good chances to find the goal. On changing ends the game became exciting and it looked as if a draw would result, but with only 10 minutes for full time, St. Bon's broke the ice, scoring the first goal. The ball being centered, St. Bon's again got down to work, and before the Fieldians knew what was happening No. 2 was netted whilst just before full time No. 3 was placed between the bars, and when the final whistle sounded the score stood 3 to 0 in favor of St. Bon's. Mr. E. Churchill was referee and a large attendance of spectators was present. Yesterday's win for St. Bon's gives them the championship for this season, an honor they have continuously held for the past eight years and Capt. Phelan and his team are to be complimented on their success. The names of the winning team are as follows:—Goal, J. Manning; full backs, S. Ryan, T. Murphy; half backs, G. Murphy, W. Skinner, K. McGrath; forwards, R. Halley, J. Bransfield, E. Phelan, G. Halley, and T. O'Reilly.

Ex-Service Men Receive Courses

Messrs. Ryan, Dempster, Howlett, Brophy and Stanley, all ex-service men leave by to-day's express en route to Truro, where they will enter the Agricultural College. These men were employed the past summer on different suburban farms, and in order to complete their course, the Civil Re-Establishment Committee have arranged through the Minister of Agriculture and Mines, to have them sent to Truro for a six months' course. All have had considerable previous experience at farming, and no doubt will give a good account of themselves in the land of the Maple Leaf.

Sportsmen up the country are finding game scarce but some have secured good heads, amongst these is Mr. E. Duder of the Reid Mtd. Co's. car shops who recently brought down two on Patrick's Marsh.

WAS HARDLY ABLE TO WALK ACROSS ROOM SHE STATES

Mrs. Bergeron's Health Was Dreadfully Run Down
Tanlac Restores Her.

"It seems almost too good to be true that I am at last free of my awful suffering," said Mrs. Hector Bergeron, 200 Grant St., Quebec, while relating her experience with Tanlac recently. "For two years I had indigestion, and just before I started taking Tanlac I was so badly run down and weak I could hardly walk across the room. My stomach was so out of order that I had to live on liquid foods for several months, and even with these my stomach pained me so much it seemed that I would go distracted, and nothing tasted good."

"My nerves were so shattered that I would lie for hours at night without closing my eyes, never getting to sleep before early in the morning, almost time to get up, and always felt tired and worn out mornings."

"Nothing I tried helped me and I seemed to get worse every day until I started taking Tanlac, but wasn't long then before I noticed a big improvement. I took eight bottles in all, and now my appetite is so big and my food tastes so good I can scarcely eat enough and my stomach doesn't give me a bit of trouble."

"My nerves are quiet and steady, and I sleep like a child nights and get up morning feeling fine. Tanlac has built me up ten pounds in weight, and I am now doing all my housework without feeling as tired and worn out as I used to feel after walking only a few steps. I feel that I just can't praise Tanlac highly enough to repay the debt of gratitude I owe."

Tanlac is sold in St. John's by M. Connors, in Musgrave Harbor by T. W. Abbott, in Badger's Quay by John T. Currie, in New Perlican by E. J. Green, in Point aux Gauls by Edgar Hillier, in Dildo by Samuel J. Preddy, in Glovertown by Daniel Burton, in Old Perlican by Moses Bursley, in Lewisporte by Uriah Peck, in Holyrood by William Coady, in Morton's Harbor by A. W. Brett, in St. Brendan's by Wm. F. Hyndes, and in Bonne Bay by Butte Bros.

'Potash and Perlmutter' Delights Large Audience

A capacity house greeted the Klark Urban Company last evening to see their presentation of that screamingly funny comedy, namely "Potash and Perlmutter" and the consensus of opinion is that this play is in a class by itself. Mr. Harnden Klark appeared as Mawrus Perlmutter and delivered this character in good style, and Mr. N. S. Scoville as Abe Potash was a decided hit. His witticisms called for roars of laughter from a delighted audience. Miss Maisie Cecil as Miss Goldman was charming, whilst Miss Lillian Dean carried off the role of Mrs. Potash to perfection. Mr. Thos. Brower was quite at home in the part of Mr. Feldham the designing lawyer. The remainder of the company performed their roles exceptionally well. For a good, clean, refreshing comedy don't fail to see "Potash and Perlmutter" which will be repeated to-night. Another feature of the bill was the beautiful music by the C.C.C. Orchestra under the direction of Mr. Arthur Butler. To-morrow's production is a great English detective play entitled "My Lady's Garter" which contains plenty of plot with a delightful vein of humor running through it.

LEWELLYN CLUB LECTURE

To-night in Canon Wood Hall at 8 o'clock the Rev. Dr. Jones will lecture to the Club on "Ulster, Its Prosperity and Patriotism." Members of the club and their friends are cordially invited to attend.

Tuesday and to-day a number of men left the city to go up country by the express bound west, most of these will go to work in the various lumber camps as loggers and quite a number who understand the care of horses will engage as teamsters. All are assured of good wages.

LOCAL ITEMS

The C.L.B. Old Comrades are holding a meeting in their rooms to-night when matters in connection with their smoker and dance will be arranged.

Last evening and night quite a number of semi-drunken men could be seen on New Gower St. showing that there is still something stirring. The police gathered in two who had taken altogether too much.

The work of erecting sheds and repairing the piers at the new premises of the Federal S. S. Co. in the West End is making rapid progress. A large number of men are engaged on it and it will be a fine establishment for the handling of freight for the liners which will berth there.

Vicious dogs are becoming a nuisance in many parts of the city and are especially so on the upper levels where they keep people awake nightly barking and barking. Some of the brutes are ferocious and not infrequently attack people whose business keeps them out late. The owners should be compelled to muzzle them.

WHEN WILL THE 'VETERAN' BE OUT? HAVE YOU HEARD IT!!! Armistice Day will see the initial issue and don't forget to be one of the lucky ones & have your name entered on the mailing list for "BETTER THAN THE BEST." The G. W. V. A., Water Street, will do the needful. Enclose one dollar, ($1.00) and name and address. nov4.11

We have repeatedly drawn attention to the practice of drivers of vehicles in turning corners of streets at a rapid pace endangering the lives of citizens. Some drivers run into the archways of various Water St. premises in the same manner and yesterday afternoon up town an old man passing the sidewalk as a horse dashed through an archway had a close call. He was pulled to safety just in the nick of time by a bypasser.

L.O.A. MEETING

The regular meeting of Royal Oak Lodge No. 22, L.O.A., held last evening was an interesting one. Business of an important nature was under consideration and some masterly speeches were delivered on matters of vital interest to the whole organization. Confering degrees also formed part of the order of business.

COUNCIL EMPLOYEES RETREAT

When the city building inspector accompanied by several carpenters visited the Upper Battery Road yesterday afternoon, for the purpose of carrying out the orders of the Court that the shack built by Cabel Robbins, they found on arrival at the scene that the owner and his wife, were determined that not a board would be started if they could prevent it, and Mrs. Robbins appeared with a shot gun and threatened that if the attempt was made she would shut "em up". By this time quite a crowd of people had gathered, including most of the residents in the vicinity, and they intimated that if the council employees were bent on tearing down the structure that they would take a hand in the affair. In the neighboring factories and on the piers all the employees dropped work, and gathering in bunches cheered Mr. and Mrs. Robbins.

A squad of Police under Inspector Noseworthy were present, but took no further action than to preserve their neutrality. Because of the belligerent attitude of Robbins and his wife, the Council's men wisely decided that discretion was the better part of valour and withdrew their forces. Other legal proceedings will likely be taken against the parties to-day. The shack is a one story affair containing two rooms which is intended to shelter the nine persons that make up the Robbins family.

Basket Ball Next Wednesday

All lovers of sport will be pleased to learn that it is the intention of the N.C.O.'s of the C.C.C. to hold a series of Basket Ball games in the armoury next Wednesday night, at which the public will be invited to attend. It will be remembered that in pre-war days this game was very popular in the fall and winter months and many good contests were witnessed among the boys of the Corps and sister brigades. Even in the gloomy days while the war was in progress, basket ball was always kept alive by the Cadets so that to-day there are to be found among the boys, players equal to the best in bygone days. The sports held by the N.C.O.'s last winter proved this very forcibly for in the final play-off the N.C.O.'s put it all over the Old Comrades, who were considered to have this down to a science. Practice has been going on in the Armoury for some time past among all ranks and some lively exhibitions are promised. Now that all sorts of athletics are being boosted up, supporters of manly sports should keep this night open and encourage this, one of the best of indoor games.
